How to Get in the Convention.—A gentleman endeavored to enter the hall of the Convention in Richmond on Monday, when the sable sergeant-at-arms confronted him, and announced that he could not come in, unless he escorted a lady. The gentleman withdrew into the rotunds, where he hired an old black woman, who was selling peanuts and ginger-cakes, to go in with him. As soon as they passed the door, he paid her ten cts, and dismissed her.— How to GET IN THE CONVENTION .- A door, he paid her ten ets. and dismissed her. -So he had a sight, and she cleared a dime, in addition to her ordinary profits. - Lynchburg Republican.

MILITARY ORDER.—Ctap. Mackay, the officer in command of the Freedmen's Bureau in Floyd county, recently issued an order to the sheriff to report to him all persons who violated on court day the law against the excessive use of ardent spirits, the use of obscene and pro-fane language, &c. The order was sent to the Governor by the sheriff, and by him to Gen-eral Schofield, who has decided that the officer named, however good may have been his intentions, has been interfering with matters belonging to the civil authorities alone. —Rich. Whig.
